> JAMES GAVIN AND OSCAR ORD. Volume 1, Published by

EDITED BY

BINGHAM & DOUGHTY,

Judge David McDonald, one of the most eminent lawyers of the State, volunteered the followin. ecommendation of the work; STATUTES OF INDIANA, BY GAVIN & HORD.—Some months ago, the above named gentlemen issued proposals for pubishing, in two volumes octave of some 800 pages each, al with trains on the Ohio & Mississippi Road, and at Louisthe statutes of the State passed since 1851, with annotations. The first volume of the work is now published; and the manner of its execution, both mechanically and editorially, deserves the thanks of the profession. The imperfect manner of publishing our statutes under State anthority, has always been a source of great inconvenience to the Indiana Lawyer. The revision of 1852, as well as the statutes passed since that year, might almost as well have been published without any index. Up to this time the lawyer has constantly been under the necessity of turning over, leaf by leaf, the volumes o our statutes to find any particular enactment. And every one knows how annoying and prevoking this is, especially in the hurry of business as in our Courts. Happily for the profession, the publication under consideration promises a better state of things in the future. The first volume o Messrs. Gavin & Hord's work contains an excellent and copious index, which to every practicing lawyer in the tate is itself worth the money which the volume costs.

Vilits pages are supplied with valuable marginal indices,

Thus, on pages 373 to 377 of their first volume they have collected all our legislation, now in force, on the subject o husband and wife, including the act of 1852 and three act of 1857. And they have followed the same mode o coocation, in appropriate consecutive pages, in regard to all

A still more valuable feature are the copious and accurate notes contained in the volume in question. This voland references. Messrs, Gavin & Hord seem to have pergreatly lessened the labor of the practising lawyer, and

In every respect the volume under review is highly red-itable to the dilligence, accuracy, talents and the taste o its editors, as well as to the mechanical skill and neatness of its publishers, and it must raise the just expectation or LIGOSIER, Noble county, Indiana, Feb. 5 1859. Prof. O. J. Wood, Dear Sir-In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending to the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the GOOD FOR CONSUMPTIVES. change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances to recognize me at all.

I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, but receiving no assurances from them that my hair could again be restored, I was forced

SPALDING'S THROAT CONFECTIONS Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir-Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test. During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the road side, from which my head received a most terrible blow, causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effect of which my hair was finally destroyed over the entire sur-face of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappear-young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I

You can publish this if you think proper. Yours, very respectfully, M. J. WRIGHT, M. D. Office of the Jeffersonian, Phillippi, Va., Dec. 12, '58. Dear Sir:—I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstances, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been hald ever since his early youth, ac much so that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and he is very well known in our ad-

CHESTER, S. C., 30th July, 1859. Pror. O. J. Wood-Dear Sir: I take pleasure in recommending your Hair Restorative as a most excellent cure for scald head. My son was suffering very much from this disease, and after using one bottle, was made perfectly well. I recommended it to others who had diseases of the head, and in all cases it had the desired effect. You can recommend it without fear as a most certain cure for scald head. Many others will certify that this and many other cases was cured from the use of your most valuable Hair Respectfully yours, GEORGE MCSUAIN. Restorative. Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant, hyperbolical cards and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water; their real merit, when they possess any, is, that they do no harm. HOG'S LARD, WHALE OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers and white flint glass bottles, the costliest character of tonics; and when thus costly are baptized with some trisyllable term, and caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes. Such is not the character of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. This gentlemen comes before the world without any "highfalutin" Xilophloforium, or any other astounding or startling catchpenny terms; he simply advertises a Hair Restorative—what it expresses, precisely—and as a Restorative it acts. Buy Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative; and, as you value your scalp, aye, your very brains, apply nothing else; for it may be that you will get some worse substance than perfumed lard oil on
